

ANNS Students Progress (2016)

At the beginning of every academic year, the ANNS students sit for a placement test (Arabic Proficiency test) which includes reading, listening, writing and speaking sections. The same test is offered at the end of the academic year (mid-May). The comparison of the results received show students language development.

The Chart below shows students' language progress during the academic year 2015-2016 (the red column shows Arabic language level at the beginning of the academic year, which the blue column shows the language level at the end of the academic year).

Comparison of the outcome results during the four academic years 2013-2016

The chart below shows results of the outcome assessment test offered to the ANNS students at the end of the academic year (mid-May) and their comparison during the academic years 2013-2016.
