

German Language Level 1

Training Course German Language Level 1

Course Language German

Course Duration Total Number of hours : 42

Course Key Topic Area Includes:

Course System is based on the six levels defined in the "Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR)." The language skills students acquire in this course are internationally comparable.

The Objectives reflect the latest methods in the science of teaching and learning - are diverse and communicative. Four language skills will be practiced: Speaking, listening, reading and writing.

Main Topics:

Different forms of greetings and farewells – Personal details – Languages – Alphabet – Family and friends – Numbers 0-mln. – Food and Beverages – Shopping – Housing situation – Furniture – Electronics – Likes and dislikes – Colors – Time – Daily schedule – Weekdays – Free time – Weather – Seasons – Conversation in Restaurant – Hobbies – Express intentions, skills – Activities in the past tense

Grammar/Structures:

Conjugation of verbs – W-Questions, yes-no Questions – Negation "nicht" – Possessive Article – Definite and Indefinite and Negative Article – Personal Pronouns – Singular and Plural forms of Nouns – Adjectives - Accusative – Modal verbs – Position of Verbs – Prepositions – Separable Verbs – Past Perfect tense

Course Content

At the end of the program the trainees will be able to:

- Introduce themselves and others
- Use familiar expressions and very simple sentences, have a basic conversation when the other person is willing to talk slowly
- Ask and answer questions about personal details: such as Name, Place of living, Place of birth, Family, Siblings, Age, Family status: married, engaged, Hobbies, Free time activities
- Shopping in the supermarket – Groceries, understand cooking recipes
- Order food and drinks in a restaurant, be able to read and understand the menu
 - Write simple texts, reply to an email or text message
- Tell a simple story in the past tense
- Fill in a registration or application form with personal details
- Understand a conversation, which is very slow spoken and includes the majority of acquired vocabs and grammar structures
- Ask and answer simple questions in areas of familiar topics: time, day, month, year, use polite expressions, greetings, farewells.

Learning Outcomes

Target Audience

Everyone who is interested to study the German language within its cultural, traditional, historical context

Course Material /Technology used/ Details Relevant to the course.

Books: Schritte International A1,1

Books are included in the course fee.

Materials:

Videos, Audios, Movies, Self developed teaching materials, Interactive games, individual and group projects

Course Fees

QAR 2100 per participant