The Right to Health under International Law

Dr. Ioannis Konstantinidis, Assistant Professor of International Law,
College of Law, Qatar University

I. The International Legal Framework Surrounding the Right to Health

- ✓ Human beings have always been concerned about their proper health and the health of those they care about
- ✓ Health is our most essential asset
- ✓ The right to health – as a human right – is part of our fundamental human rights
- ✓ Do you believe that the right to health is new?
- ✓ Is the right to health protected by international human right law?

I. The International Legal Framework Surrounding the Right to Health

- ✓ The right to health made its début in 1946: Constitution of the World Health Organization (WHO)

Preamble

Definition of Health: “a state of complete physical, mental and social well-being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity”

“The enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of health is one of the fundamental rights of every human being without distinction of race, religion, political belief, economic or social condition”

I. The International Legal Framework Surrounding the Right to Health

- ✓ 1948: The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) – Adopted by the United Nations General Assembly – Article 25
- ✓ Health is mentioned as part of the right to an adequate standard of living
- ✓ UDHR – Provisions are general and aspirational (as opposed to containing specific obligations)
- ✓ With the passage of time, they became customary international law – thus binding on all States

I. The International Legal Framework Surrounding the Right to Health

- ✓ 1966: The right to health was again recognized as a human right in the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights – Article 12
- “1. The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health”
- ✓ 166 States Parties

International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights

I. The International Legal Framework Surrounding the Right to Health

✓ 1989: Convention on the Rights of the Child – Article 24

“1. States Parties recognize the right of the child to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of health and to facilities for the treatment of illness and rehabilitation of health. States Parties shall strive to ensure that no child is deprived of his or her right of access to such health care services”

✓ 196 States Parties

I. The International Legal Framework Surrounding the Right to Health

✓ 2004: Arab Charter on Human Rights – Article 39

“Young persons have the right to be afforded the most ample opportunities for physical and mental development”

✓ 13 States Parties

I. The International Legal Framework Surrounding the Right to Health

- ✓ A series of other international and regional treaties recognize the right to health
 - ✓ The 1965 International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination – Article 5(e)(iv)
 - ✓ The 1979 Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women – Articles 11(1)(f), 12 and 14(2)(b)
 - ✓ The 1990 International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families – Articles 28, 43(e) and 45(c)
