

German Language for Beginners – Level 1

Training Course	German Language for Beginners This introductory German course has been designed to provide students with basic functional tools and practical language knowledge that will enable them to communicate immediately and effectively in simple conversation
Course Language	German, English and Arabic
Course Duration	Total Number of hours 36
Course Content	Course Key Topic Area Includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• By the end of this course, students should be able to:• Introduce one self and others• Greet some one and say goodbye• Express origin and nationality• Ask for and respond to simple personal information• Understand and express dates and time• State and ask about the location of places, residence, city and country• Use basic vocabulary on a variety of topics, such as family ,work ,hobbies ,food and drinks ,furniture and electronics.• Have a basic idea about the contemporary German-speaking word.

German Language for Beginners

At the end of the program the trainee will be able :

Chapter 1: Tag. Mein Name ist... (Good morning . My name is...)

.To be familiar with the German Alphabets.

.To greet, farewell and thank some one

.To introduce one self to others

.To introduce one self and others with name and surname

.To ask about the country of origin and the language

.To make a phone conversation and ask about some one's health

.To understand and fill a visit card with simple personal information.

.To fill and understand a registration form

.To conjugate the verbs: heißen, kommen, sprechen, sein

Chapter 2: family and friends

.To ask about some one's health

.To express one self situation

.to introduce one self family and friends

.To mention residence

.To mention jobs

.To express possession

.To ask about and respond to personal information about one self and others

Chapter3: food and drinks

.To mention vegetables, fruits and things

.to mention quantity

.To make a conversation on the market

.To ask about price and weight

.To express preferences

Chapter 4: My home

.To ask about a place or address

.To describe one's home

.To express likes and dislikes

.To mention furniture and electronics

Learning
Outcomes

Target Audience	This course is for students who are beginners in German language
Course Material /Technology used	Books, videos and audio